Response to Amendment

Request for Reconsideration filed on 7/13/2006 has been entered. Claims 80 and 91 have been cancelled. Claims 71-79, 81-90, and 92-108 are pending in the application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Rejection of claims 74, 90 and 98 under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement has been withdrawn due to explanation by the Applicants.

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Rejection of claims 74, 90 and 98 under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention has been withdrawn due to explanation by the Applicants.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Rejection of claims 71-79, 83-84, 86, 88-90 under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Thomas (US 5,586,371) has been withdrawn due to amendment.

8. Claims 71-79, 81-84, 86-90, 92-106, and 108 stand rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Wessels et al (US 5,669,120) for the reasons of record set forth in paragraph 8 of the Office Action mailed on 4/13/2006 because Wessels et al disclose stems 4 with a free unattached end (See Figs. 4A-4F), as required by Amendment.

9. Claims 85, 107 stand rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Wessels et al in view of Murasaki (US 5,643,651) for the reasons of record set forth in paragraph 9 of the Office Action mailed on 4/13/2006.

Response to Arguments

10. Applicants' arguments filed 7/13/2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicants argue that claims are not anticipated by Wessels et al, because in contrast to claimed invention, a resin, which forms hook elements, encapsulates the substrate as shown in Figs. 4A-4F instead of being fused to a first major side of the web.

This is not found persuasive because the “encapsulation” in Wessels et al achieves polymeric regions fused to a first major side of the web. It is irrelevant that this result is achieved through encapsulation because claims 21, 40 and 48 are product claims which do not recite negative limitation that the web should not have polymeric regions fused to other side of the web.

It is held that determination of patentability is based on the product itself. It is also held that patentability of a product his independent of how it is made. Therefore, it is irrelevant whether a plurality of discrete polymeric regions fused to a first major side of a web is formed by fusing polymeric regions to the first major side of the web or by embedding or encapsulating as long as the resulting web comprises a plurality of discrete polymeric regions fused to a first major side of a web.

Conclusion

11. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
